

- See the actual film sites and hear juicy production anecdotes
- Guide: Tour director & production expert Helen Porter
- Exclusive tour of the film locations in the house and gardens
- A tour of the church where Lizzie marries her Darcy
- Lizzie's walks around Longbourn
- Afternoon tea or supper
- Option of Regency dancing in the house to dances from the P&P production

Ever since the 6 weeks of filming finished in 1994, the owners of Longbourn have shied away from opening their home to the public - until now. Longbourn now works in partnership with P and P Tours to allow exclusive access to the house and gardens as part of their 4 day P&P holiday, and to offer shorter events.

1. Afternoon tea 'with Mrs Bennet' start at 3pm ends 5pm

Always on a Tuesday afternoon

- Tour of the church where Lizzie marries Mr Darcy
- A tour of the house and gardens
- Afternoon tea – home made cakes and traditional English afternoon tea
- Theatricals in the drawing room

2. Supper at Longbourn

Always on a Tuesday evening

- Tour of the church where Lizzie marries Mr Darcy
- A tour of the house and gardens
- Supper in the house
- Theatricals in the drawing room OR regency dancing to the actual dances used in P&P

Longbourn events run for groups. When you have a group just ask us about dates and we will do the rest.

P and P Tours was set up in 2007 to share our love of period filming locations with the world. As an English graduate who specialised in Jane Austen, Helen is well qualified in the literary background to the tours, and an expert on the BBC and film productions with invaluable inside information. P and P Tours is already established as the international front-runner in bespoke film location tours.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS ARE SAYING....

What a privilege to be able to take a look at Longbourn! Our hearts skipped a beat when we saw the entrance to the house. Thank you so much for your hospitality.

Mireille, Nannie and Karin, The Netherlands

The gardens and home are beautiful. It took our breath away as we saw our first glimpse. Thank you so much

Susan, Sharon and Marie, Toronto Canada

We are so grateful to you for opening your home to us. It was such a delight to be transported to the time and place of one of our favourite stories. Thank you for a delightful evening.

Kay and Kelli, USA

COSTUME

We encourage you to wear a Regency outfit for the event, but it is entirely optional! We sell and hire gowns on our website.
